

Milder Lisondra

Web Developer

925-980-8485

milder.lisondra@yahoo.com

<http://www.linkedin.com/in/milderhlisondra>

Summary

Web Application Developer with 10 years of experience. Excellent system planning abilities and the ability to understand and translate business needs to a working application. Diligent, self-motivated with excellent public speaking skills.

Core Competencies

Object Oriented Programming, web application architecture, Wordpress, SSH, PHP, MySQL, JQuery, AJAX, XAMPP, Joomla, CodeIgniter.

Work Experience

Jews for Jesus

Senior Web Developer/DEVops

February 2015 - Present

- Successfully migrated from a Joomla 3.x site to Wordpress after acquiring design from an external group within 6 weeks. Worked as a liaison between various departments to ensure that a solid understanding of the core requirements were met prior to launch.
- Successfully migrated a Joomla 2.5x installation to Joomla 3.x.
- Migrated a Wordpress multi-user install to a new hosting service and condensed the number of plugins used by the network to prevent security issues. Contribute to long-term planning to best address the needs of internal and external users.
- Level 2 support for internal website users.
- Lead research on visitor behavior patterns to reinforce information architecture
- Coordinate and manage server farm with hosting partner

Web Developer

November 2013 - January 2015

Web developer for the Multimedia department with the primary duties of managing the organization's Joomla website. Perform updates on Joomla core and extension as needed. Create backend solutions to interact with external API resources to deliver engaging content for website visitors.

TEK Systems/Apple Inc

Web Developer

May 2013 - November 2013

As part of the Finance Technical department core responsibilities include application development to support Global Finance initiatives.

- Participated in an application launch within the first 30 days of assignment
- Provided development code towards enhancement launched application
- Ongoing development for existing applications to address enhancements and increase efficiency
- Assist in Quality Assurance testing

dystick design inc.

Senior Web Developer

Jan. 2007 - August 2012

As a Senior Web Developer core contributions have been through Application Design and Architecture, technology partner reviews, technical project leadership, and client training. Primary resource for designing and implementing application frameworks to support the business processes for clients to address near-term and future needs. This includes, but is not limited to, audit trail systems, ecommerce, Content Management Systems, and third-party webservices.

Projects

October 2011 - August 2012

Client: TalentEarth Inc.

Website/Application: <http://www.talenteearth.com>

Launch: June 2012 (soft launch)

Technologies: PHP, MySQL, JQuery, CSS, HTML

- Lead developer in database and application architecture
- Maintained build versions
- Deployment manager

March 2010 - July 2010

Client: Nexsan

Website/Application: Online Campaign Creator (internal only)

Technologies: JQuery, Prototype, PHPMailer

- Application assists in creating campaigns for use in emails and partner websites
- Migrated from Prototype to JQuery after one year in production

September 2010 - December 2011

Client: AnD Medical

Website/Application: <http://www.anonline.com>

Launch: January 2011

Technologies: PHP, MySQL, JQuery, Third-party payment gateway (firstdata.com), Third-party (activity monitoring) HTML, CSS

- Website redesign
- Custom CMS, Product Management, Ecommerce, Fitlinxx integration

February 2008 - December 2010

Client: Pakker Inc.

Website/Application: Various websites and clients

Launch: December 2010

Technologies: PHP, MySQL, JQuery, Third-party payment gateway (firstdata.com), HTML, CSS

- Custom CMS with Product Management
- Customer Account Management
- Reporting tools including data export
- Website maintenance and reporting

iHomefinder

November 2005 - December 2007

Technical Support/Engineering Support

- Provide email and phone support to direct clients utilizing the iHomefinder application
- Assist in migrating raw data from regional and national Multiple Listing Service organizations into the iHomefinder application
- Participate in QA testing during development cycle and help manage bugs submitted by clients

RE Infolink

October 2000 - March 2004

Technical Support/Webmaster

- Designed and implemented an online learning application through the corporate website with the Training department. Full administration and statistic reporting capability also implemented. Consulted on the creation of Macromedia Flash content to ensure the highest quality of usability.
- As Technical Support team member, trained for 1 week and then immediately placed into the call center. First time in the organization's history.