Milder Lisondra

Web Developer
925-980-8485
milder.lisondra@yahoo.com
http://www.linkedin.com/in/milderhlisondra

Summary

Web Application Developer with 7 years of experience. Excellent system planning abilities and the ability to understand and translate business needs to a working application. Diligent, self-motivated with excellent public speaking skills.

Core Competencies

Object Oriented Programming, web application architecture, MVC frameworks, PHP, MySQL, JQuery, AJAX, Joomla, Wordpress, XAMPP, CodeIgniter, Linux.

Work Experience

December 2013 - Present : Jews for Jesus : Web Developer

Primary web developer for the web department with the primary duties of managing Joomla and Wordpress websites.

- Primary resource for a current project to migrate a Joomla website from version 2.5 to 3.x including set up on a new hosting service. Performing research in order to minimize the number of components and plugins installed on the 3.x version with the intent of utilizing built-in core features
- Migrated a Wordpress multiuser install to a new hosting service and condensed the number of plugins used by the network to prevent security issues
- Contribute to long-term planning to best address the needs of internal and external users.

TEKsystems - Contractor

May 2013 - November 2013: Apple Inc. : Web Developer

As part of the Finance Technical department core responsibilities include application development to support Global Finance initiatives.

- Participated in an application launch within the first 30 days of assignment
- Provided development code towards enhancement launched application
- Ongoing development for existing applications to address enhancements and increase efficiency
- Assist in Quality Assurance testing

Dec. 2012 - March 2013 : Cytak : Web Developer

Tasked with creating a process to sanitize, store and quantify data from the film industry, paying close attention to financial data. The data was derived from various sources including a published API from the Associated Press, comma-delimited files and raw html.

Jan. 2007 - August 2012 : dystick design inc. : Senior Web Developer

As a Senior Web Developer core contributions have been through Application Design and Architecture, technology partner reviews, technical project leadership, and client training. Primary resource for designing and implementing application frameworks to support the business processes for clients to address near-term and future needs. This includes, but is not limited to, audit trail systems, ecommerce, Content Management Systems, and third-party webservices.

Sample Projects

October 2011 - August 2012
Client: TalentEarth Inc.
Website/Application: http://www.talentearth.com
Launch: June 2012 (soft launch)
Technologies: PHP, MySQL, JQuery, CSS, HTML

- Lead developer in database and application architecture
- Maintained build versions
- Deployment manager

September 2010 - December 2011
Client: AnD Medical
Website/Application: http://www.anonline.com
Launch: January 2011
Technologies: PHP, MySQL, JQuery, Third-party payment gateway (firstdata.com), Third-party (activity monitoring) HTML, CSS

- Website redesign
- Custom CMS, Product Management, Ecommerce, Fitlinxx integration

Education

Las Positas College, Livermore, Spring 2013
        Course studied: Digital Forensics
San Jose City College 1994 - 1996
        Courses studied: Web Design, Java
San Jose State University 1993 - 1994
        Major: Business Management